- 2  White The wide middle stripe
- 3  Red The bottom stripe
- 4  Green The cedar tree

DID YOU KNOW?

The tree is the famous Lebanon cedar, a mighty evergreen that can live for over a thousand years. It's the national symbol of Lebanon.

The two red stripes stand for the blood of those who defended the country, and the white stripe stands for peace and Lebanon's snowy mountains.

Cedar trees have been prized for thousands of years. The ancient Phoenicians, who came from Lebanon, built ships and traded cedar wood all around the Mediterranean.

The name 'Lebanon' comes from a word meaning 'white', because of the snow that caps its mountains — you can even ski and swim in the sea on the same day!
