DID YOU KNOW?

The blue star represents the Conservative Party and the red star represents the Liberal Party — the two main political parties at the time of independence.

Panama is famous for the Panama Canal — one of the world's most important shipping routes, connecting the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans.

Panama has some of the most biodiverse rainforests in the world, including over 10,000 plant species.

Despite the name, the famous Panama hat was actually made in Ecuador — it just became popular in Panama during the canal's construction!
